

National Preservation Institute

P.O. Box 1702 Alexandria, VA 22313-1702 703.765.0100 info@npi.org www.npi.org

William Lebovich

Contact Information:

National Preservation Institute, P.O. Box 1702, Alexandria, VA 22313-1702
703.765.0100, info@npi.org, www.npi.org

Education:

B.A., anthropology, Brandeis University

M.A., American history, Boston University

Ph.D. qualifying exam (passed), American and New England studies (history and architectural history),
Boston University

Experience:

Mr. Lebovich is an architectural historian with 30 years' experience at the National Park Service and as a consultant, and has been an architectural photographer for 20 years. He is a consultant on accessibility and a juror for the American Association of Museums accessibility awards program. He has written extensively on American architectural history and on accessibility. Mr. Lebovich's architectural photographs are in the Library of Congress, the Brooklyn Museum, and have been published in numerous newspapers, magazines, and books. He has prepared mitigation documentation on architectural, industrial, engineering, and maritime resources throughout the United States.

Publications:

America City Halls

Design for Dignity

Recording Historic Structures, chapter on archival, large-format photography

Contributor to the AIA Journal of Architecture: Sacred Spaces (June 2005)

Exhibitions:

Shared Sacred Spaces: Washington, DC, synagogues that became African American churches