

National Preservation Institute

P.O. Box 1702 Alexandria, VA 22313-1702 703.765.0100 info@npi.org www.npi.org

Jacqueline Drayer

Contact Information:

Mulberry History Advisors
P.O. Box 5111, Richmond VA, 23220
804.404.6785, jacqueline@mulberryhistory.com, mulberryhistory.com

Education:

M.A., American studies/historic preservation, George Washington University
B.A., American studies, George Washington University

Experience:

Owner and principal, Mulberry History Advisors. Helping communities protect, understand, and reuse historic sites. Services include National Register nominations, Section 106 advising, nonprofit program development, and preservation planning. Clients include municipalities, national and local nonprofits, architects, property owners, and independent historians.

Senior planner, City of Milwaukee. Represented city in Section 106 consultation and advised on agency-delegated duties. Wrote first policy on cell towers and historic preservation to be adopted in Wisconsin. Issued certificates of appropriateness. Applied and interpreted design guidelines.

Senior architectural historian, EBI Consulting. Provided technical direction on Section 106 reports, facilitated consultation in more than 35 states, and prepared determinations of eligibility.

Project coordinator, National Alliance of Preservation Commissions. Managed agreement with National Park Service focused on preservation and disaster resiliency in several states.

Outreach and grants manager, DC Preservation League. Led preparation of 12 National Register nominations and represented organization in Section 106 consultation.

Research fellow, The Fulbright Program. Published book of original research, survey, and documentation of 18 adaptively used Belgian art spaces; spoke at Belgian colleges.

Select Publications:

“5G and History: How a Little-Known Federal Process Alters Cities,” Hidden City Philadelphia.

“Upzoning a Potential Aid for Affordability and Preservation Woes,” Hidden City Philadelphia.

The Case for Adaptive Reuse: Belgian Art Institutions as a Model of How Historic Rehabilitation Transforms Cities, self-published with funding from The Fulbright Program.

Leadership:

Historic Richmond Foundation, Junior Board member and officer

Society of Architectural Historians-Latrobe Chapter, former board member and officer