Over the next five years (2023-2028) the Department of Defense (DoD) Legacy Resource Management Program will sponsor a series of projects designed to help meet its responsibilities under Section 110 of the National Historic Preservation Act.

New Department of Defense Partnership
DoD has partnered with the National Preservation Institute (NPI) through a cooperative agreement to work with the cultural resource management leadership in the Military Departments (including their Reserve and National Guard) components to develop high priority projects that will identify and evaluate historic properties. Section 110 projects are strategic and address long-term efforts to identify and evaluate historic properties under an agency's stewardship. In general, DoD has surveyed 40% of its land (approximately 10 million acres) and 71% of its real property assets over fifty years of age (approximately 95,000 assets).

A Substantial Investment
This work represents a substantial investment by the DoD, with $13.5M allocated to the projects by the Legacy Resource Management Program over five years. Another $10M of additional capacity is available via contributions from the individual services. During the 2023-2028 cycle, NPI will support $1.2M in Legacy projects.

Opportunities for CRM Firms
NPI is gathering a list of cultural resource management firms interested in participating in subcontracts in these studies. Please send your contact information (name, title, firm name, telephone, email, a statement of your firm's professional capabilities, a list of previous DoD or related projects, and the geographic areas in which your firm has expertise) to legacy@npi.org.
