NATIONAL PRESERVATION INSTITUTE Scholarship Application Form for Tuition Fees for National Preservation Institute eLearnings, Webinars, and Seminars

*The application is a fillable PDF;
if you prefer to complete by hand,
simply print the PDF and hand
write the information.*

The National Preservation Institute (NPI) is pleased to offer scholarships for tuition fees for NPI eLearnings, webinars, and seminars to participants who show a justifiable need for the training and for tuition assistance.

Eligibility Criteria for Scholarship Recipients:

- Must work at least 20 hours a week (paid or volunteer) at the organization they will represent or be a full-time student.
- Must have a commitment to improving their own performance, as well as their staff, and wish to impact the field at large.
- Must agree to attend the entire training.

Timeline: All requests for scholarship assistance must be received at least one week prior to the eLearning, two weeks prior to the webinar, and/or six weeks prior to the seminar for which assistance is requested. Notification of awards will be made within one week of receipt of the application for the eLearning and/or webinar and one month prior to the seminar.

Review Process: A selection committee will review applications and select scholarship recipients based on the eligibility criteria. Preference will be given to applicants from nonprofit organizations, from diverse ethnic or racial backgrounds, and/or representing ethnic-specific organizations, or to full-time students.

Information: For further information, contact NPI at 703.765.0100 or info@npi.org.

NOTE: NPI will accept EITHER an NPI Scholarship Application Form OR an NPI Registration Form (with payment information). [Submitting an NPI Registration Form (with payment information) will invalidate the NPI Scholarship Application.]
